FROM MONSIGNOR BAIRD:

A provocative French novelist once put on the lips of one of his characters a stinging challenge ...

“You say you are a Christian. Then where the devil is your joy?”
There, for many an unbeliever, is the real Christian scandal. Those who do not follow Jesus day by day do not demand that we be heroes simply because we are Christians. They may not even expect us to be good. But, the unbeliever does expect us to be happy men and women of joy.”

May you know and share the joy of the Resurrection this Easter.

Reverend Monsignor Lawrence J. Baird, P.A.
Administrator, St. John Vianney Chapel
